

ALTGELD PASSES AWAY

Famous Statesman Stricken at the Conclusion of a Speech.

LAST APPEAL WAS FOR THE BOERS.

Incidents in the Career of a Man Who Rose to Eminence From Low Paths—His Eloquence, Sincerity and Disinterestedness.

Joliet, Ill., March 12.—Former Governor John P. Altgeld died in Hotel Monroe at 7:09 a. m. He had been unconscious since midnight. Mr. Altgeld was the principal speaker at a pro-Boer mass meeting Tuesday night in the Joliet theater. Just at the close of his speech a sudden dizziness seized him and he was assisted from the stage. The meeting proceeded, the audience not realizing what had happened. Mr. Altgeld was taken from the theater where he was seized with vomiting spells.

Shortly before midnight he became unconscious. He remained in this condition until death. Physicians worked his arms vigorously to induce respiration, but all to no purpose. The cause of death is given as cerebral hemorrhages, there having been an apoplectic seizure of the brain. The vomiting at first was taken to indicate ptomaine poisoning, but it was determined that this was due to different manifestations of brain trouble.

Mr. Altgeld came to Joliet Tuesday, having been advertised as the principal orator for the big Will county pro-Boer meeting. He confessed that he was not in the best of health. He was not willing to allow that to interfere with his speech, however, his great interest in the South African struggle being heightened by the announcement of the Boer success in the capture of General Methuen. It was noted during the address that the ex-governor threw an unusual amount of energy and feeling into his words, and the collapse, the physicians think, resulted from overstraining his already weakened physical powers. Ever since the failure of the Globe Savings bank in 1896, in which he was involved, Mr. Altgeld has not been a well man, and for some months after the Spaulding crash it was feared that his life was only a question of a short time. Even when serving his last year as governor his health was none too good.

Mr. Altgeld, in the speech, which was fated to be his last, declared that all friends of humanity owed a debt of gratitude to Governor Yates for issuing a proclamation soliciting assistance for the Boer women and children in the concentration camps, which the British are maintaining in South Africa. The speaker said the people of America had raised a large sum of money with which to relieve the distress of the Boer women and children, but were unable to send it to them because Lord Pauncefoot, the British ambassador at Washington, objected to it. He further charged that Lord Pauncefoot had for years meddled in American affairs. His arraignment of the British ambassador was severe.

Altgeld's Career.

John Peter Altgeld was born in Germany Dec. 30, 1847. His parents emigrated to this country when he was three years old, settling on a little farm in Richland county, Ohio. His early educational advantages were meagre. In 1864 he enlisted in the Union army and served until the close of the war. He then worked his way through an academy and for awhile taught school in the west. He was admitted to the bar in 1870 in Savannah, Mo., and shortly afterwards was elected state's attorney. Mr. Altgeld next moved to Chicago and entered the practice of law, soon amassing a fortune. He was elected governor of Illinois in 1892. During his term of governor he had ardent champions and bitter enemies. One of his acts that caused much dispute was the pardoning of the anarchists Fielden, Schwab and Neebe. During the great Pullman strike in Chicago Governor Altgeld refused to call out state troops, and this action also was the subject of much debate. Mr. Altgeld was an ardent advocate of the free coinage of silver and municipal ownership of public utilities. He was married in 1877 to Miss Ford of Richland county, Ohio.

KRUGER'S MESSAGE.

Confident the Boers Will Triumph. Demands Independence.

Utrecht, Holland, March 12.—President Kruger sends the following telegram to a New York newspaper: "There will be more good news yet from Delarey. This victory of his reminds me of General Botha's allusion a year ago to the miracle of faith which saved Daniel out of the lion's den. My confidence in the ultimate triumph of the Boer cause can not be greater than it is now, and, indeed, it never has been shaken. I hope England will show that she sees her folly of attempting to subdue the Boer race, by recognizing it now and by restoring independence to the Transvaal republics. By doing this, she will spare herself as well as the Boers further bloodshed and expense, and will retain the republics as friendly neighbors."

SIXTEEN DROWNED.

River Boat Founders in a Storm With All Hands.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 12.—The Vicksburg and Davis Bend packet, City of Providence, which left here at noon Tuesday, was caught in a storm Wednesday morning at Ion, in the lake at Davis Bend. The boat being light capsize. Captain Will Cassidy, master of the boat, and Clyde Scott, representing the Vicksburg oil mills, Dr. Lancaster, a prominent physician near Palmyra, and Head Engineer Rount were drowned, together with 13 of the negro deck crew and passengers. Captain Cassidy and Scott both have families here. The tug Joe Seay has gone to the scene to secure the bodies.

Illinois Miners May Strike.

Peoria, Ill., March 12.—The situation between the United Mine Workers' association and the coal operators' association regarding the wage scale for the ensuing year in Illinois district is considered extremely critical by members of both bodies and an order to strike is hourly expected. The scale has been in the hands of the joint scale committee of the two bodies for the past two weeks and latterly in the hands of a sub-committee, which reported its inability to reach an agreement to joint convention.

Building Trades Strike.

Pittsburg, March 12.—Three hundred members of the building trades organizations employed on the new Arrot building in this city quit work in sympathy with the striking painters, a number of Knights of Labor painters from Washington, D. C., having taken the places of the strikers. The strike leaders say they will call out all members of building trades on every building on which non-union painters are employed.

Compromise on Reciprocity.

Washington, March 12.—There are indications that the Republicans of the house will compromise on Cuban reciprocity, the basis being a 20 per cent reduction to continue for two years. Leaders on both sides have been conferring with a view to reaching agreement on these lines.

Nicaragua Route Favored.

Washington, March 12.—The senate committee in isthmian canals has decided by a vote of 7 to 4 to report the Hepburn bill providing for the construction of an isthmian canal via the Nicaragua route.

Mrs. Altgeld Prostrated.

Chicago, March 12.—Mrs. Altgeld, widow of the former governor, was prostrated by the shock of the news from Joliet. Grave apprehension for her welfare is felt, as she has been in delicate health for two years. The decedent leaves no children.

Skirmish in Cape Colony.

Cape Town, March 12.—During a skirmish near Pearston, Cape Colony, March 10, between some British troops and Commandant Fouche's force of Boers, Commandant Ovandaal and Field Cornet Vanderwalt were killed.

Village Burned.

Paducah, Ky., March 12.—News has reached this city of the burning of Oakton, Hickman county, a town of 400 inhabitants. The origin of the fire nor the financial loss is not known.

ASK FRANCE TO JOIN.

Senators Prepare For the Dedication of the Rochambeau Monument.

BID TO BE SENT THE FRENCH PEOPLE.

Speeches Delivered in Favor of Ship Subsidy — Permanent Census Bureau Measure Again Aired in the House.

Washington, March 12.—Soon after the senate convened, Mr. Rawlins (Utah) introduced a resolution, which was passed, directing the secretary of war to send to the senate the reports of inspectors and carriers and any other information he may have in relation to the transports between the United States and the Philippines, especially regarding free transportation for individuals.

Mr. Cullom, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, reported favorably a bill authorizing the president to extend to the government of France an invitation to join the government and people of the United States in the dedication of the monument of Count De Rochambeau to be unveiled in this city on May 24 next. Mr. Hoar (Mass.) offered an amendment including in the invitation the family of the Marquis De Lafayette. He paid a tribute to Lafayette and urged that this amendment was particularly pertinent. The amendment was agreed to, and as amended, the bill was passed.

At the conclusion of routine business the senate resumed consideration of the ship subsidy bill. Mr. McCumber (N. D.) speaking in support of the measure. He said he represented an agricultural state interested only indirectly in shipping industry, but he favored the passage of the bill because he believed the results of its operation would be beneficial not only to his constituents, but to the people of the entire country.

Mr. Depew followed Mr. McCumber in a speech earnestly supporting the ship subsidy bill. He said we were now entirely dependent upon the ships of foreign countries for our ocean carrying trade. We were looking forward to becoming a world power, but were, he continued, hindered because we lacked means of communication. Mr. Depew presented figures to show that the assertion that American shipyards were prosperous was not well founded.

Mr. Depew, referring to subsidies paid by foreign governments, said that "one of the most enlightened and progressive rulers of the old world is the present emperor of Germany. Within the last 10 years he has brought Germany to practically unanimous support of subsidies, by which the German merchant marine has rapidly overtaken that of Great Britain."

That Census Bill.

Washington, March 12.—When the house met a bill was passed to provide for a clerk for the circuit and district court, at Wilmington, N. C. The house then went into committee of the whole and resumed the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill. Mr. Sims (Tenn.) reviewed the facts in connection with the enactment of the permanent census law and asserted that the house had been grossly deceived by the action of the conferees. It had been the intention both of the house and senate, he said, to enact a provision which would cover all the employees of the census bureau into the classified service and make them eligible for transfer, but the conferees had submitted a provision which defeated the object sought to be obtained by the two houses. He charged that Mr. Hopkins of Illinois, who presented the conference report, had deceived the house. Mr. Hopkins' action, he declared, called for the strongest censure by the house, but as the gentleman was not present, he would not propose action along that line.

Mr. Griffith (Ind.), who was one of the conferees on the bill, called attention to three decisions of the supreme court, which would have nullified section 5, as agreed to by the house and senate. The conferees, he said, thought they were doing so, and for himself he said it was far from his purpose either to deceive or mislead the house. Mr. Sims accepted Mr. Griffith's explanations and acquitted him and his colleagues of the deliberate purpose to deceive, but said the effect had been to mislead the house.

The Pacific cable discussion was commenced in the house and Mr. Corliss (Mich.) made an attack upon Mr. Richardson (Tenn.), replying to the latter's speech a few days ago. He asked why Mr. Richardson had not waited until the bill was properly before the house before rushing to the defense of the telegraph corporation.

He said that it was his experience that there was a motive behind every act and stated that Mr. Richardson should explain his zeal and motive in regard to this measure.

Mr. Corliss also very severely criticized F. B. Thurber, president of the United States Export association, whom he coupled with the officers of the American Asiatic association and styled them the "devil's duet in the garb of heavenly twins," seeking to mislead the public and conceal the iniquity of the cable monopoly.

OHIO LEGISLATURE.

Number of Bills Passed and a Number of New Ones Introduced.

Columbus, O., March 12.—The house passed bills as follows: By Senator Stillwell, to prohibit altering bills of exceptions except by permission of trial judge; Senator Hosea, to appoint a commission to secure the passage of uniform state laws on matters pertaining to bills of lading, commercial paper, marriage and divorce, corporations, etc.; Senator Patterson, to require cost bills to be approved by prosecuting attorney instead of by trial judge; Mr. Meisel, to authorize Cleveland to issue $1,450,000 in bonds to acquire and improve park property; by Senator Thompson, to authorize the appointment of another assistant prosecuting attorney in Franklin county.

The Chamberlain anarchy bill was temporarily sidetracked in the house through the efforts of Representative McDonald, who has a similar bill pending. The bill was finally referred to a special committee to endeavor to harmonize the two measures. A number of local measures were introduced.

In the Senate.

The senate passed Mr. Kimball's house bill providing for the administration of a trust fund bequeathed the town of Willoughby, Lake county, by Wallace C. Andrews of New York, amounting to $1,000,000, and which is to be devoted to the establishing of a girls' industrial farm. The bill creates a commission which is to consist of the governor of the state, the mayor of the town of Willoughby, two citizens of the town, the treasurer of the county, and the executor of Mr. Wallace's estate, which is to administer the trust.

Bills introduced: Providing for ten depositories for state funds, no two depositories to be located in more than one town; limiting liability in corporation to 18 months after holder shall have disposed of same; to exempt stock of Ohio citizens in foreign corporations from taxation, where one-half of property is located in this state, and where corporation is taxed under Willis bill; allowing corporations to own stock in other like corporations, but providing against restriction of trade through combines or trusts.

Farmers National Congress.

Chicago, March 12.—The next annual meeting of the Farmers' National congress will be held at Macon, Ga., Oct. 7, 8, 9 and 10 next. Macon has raised a large sum of money for the expenses and entertainment of the congress. The Southwestern Passenger association has already made a rate of one fare for the round trip on account of the meeting, and other passenger associations will make low rates. The congress is composed of delegates appointed by the governors of the various states. The president of the congress is George L. Flanders of Albany, N. Y., and the secretary is John M. Stahl of Chicago.

Building Collapsed.

Chicago, March 12.—Frost leaving the ground caused the destruction of a new 4-story brick building valued at $60,000. The structure, owned by the H. J. Heinz company was begun last September. Apparently sufficient calculation of the then hardened earth was not taken, according to the city building commissioner. The weather recently sufficiently warmed to soften the ground and the foundation of the structure sank perceptibly. A cordon of police was drawn around the building and shortly afterward one corner of the building fell. It was then determined to pull down the other walls.

Funston in Chicago.

Chicago, March 12.—The entertainment of General Funston which began here Tuesday night with a banquet given by the Marquette club, was continued. He visited General Otis at army headquarters, spent a few moments at the board of trade and then went to the stock yards. Later he attended a reception in his honor at the Press club. In the evening General Funston was a spectator at the Studebaker theater, where George Ade's "Sultan of Sulu" had its premier appearance Tuesday night. After the theatre he attended the Chicago Yacht club's banquet.

The first antislavery society was organized in 1775 at Philadelphia.

BOSTON IN A BAD WAY.

Freight Handlers' Strike Spreads to Many Lines of Industry.

MERCHANTS DAZED BY ITS EFFECT.

Civic Federation, State Board of Arbitration and Other Influences at Work — Congestion at the Freight Depots.

Boston, March 12.—The strike of 600 New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad freight handlers which began last Saturday, has extended until now there are 20,000 men idle in this city. Of these 3,000 to 5,000 were employed by manufacturing concerns which have been compelled to shut down because of the difficulty of handling freight. The various lines of industry directly affected by the strike include freight handlers, team drivers, wool handlers, longshoremen and railway switchmen. If the threats of the strike leaders are borne out another day will see the movement extended to the building trades unions and to unions connected with the foreign steamship traffic. The business men of the city find themselves staggered by the strike. Many conferences have been held. The influence of the Civic Federation has been invoked and the state board of arbitration has tried to find a ground for agreement between the parties at war, but apparently there is little confidence that the desired result will be reached by these means.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford road and the Boston and Albany system on the New York Central have forces adequate to handle all the traffic. There is no trouble over the movement of outgoing freight, but incoming merchandise has accumulated in formidable quantities. The Boston and Maine road has not yet lost its regular force of freight handlers and clerks, but with teaming tied up, their freight houses and yards are becoming congested like those of other lines. Arrangements have been made for the transfer of through freight without delay at this point. At the docks of the steamship lines doing a coastwise business great quantities of merchandise are piled up and the wharves are choked. The longshoremen are out and the material cannot be moved. The express companies are tied up and there is a threat that the hack drivers will join the strike if an issue is made, because they carry passengers with trunks, large parcels or other matter which should go by express. The strike of the coal teamsters presents one of the most alarming features of the trouble, as it menaces not only many industries, but also the welfare of householders, and especially the people in the poorer quarters of the city.

The conference with the governor was held at the state house at 10:30 o'clock, but resulted in nothing definite. The strike committee told the governor that their organizations had decided to stand by the proposition that the strike would be declared off if the railroads would consent that no freight handler should go on any train delivering goods at the freight sheds. The railroads have refused to consider this proposition and the governor decided that he could do nothing.

The arrival of a fleet of fishing smacks, bringing 250,000 pounds of fresh fish further complicates the situation that confronts the fish dealers, who cannot get teams to handle the fish.

Hanna in the Strike.

Washington, March 12.—Senator Hanna, when asked about his connection with the effort to settle the Boston strike, said that he is doing what he could, but did not care to discuss his plans or intentions in the matter. At present he was looking into the situation.

Switchmen Out.

Missoula, Mont., March 12.—The strike situation on the Rocky Mountain division of the Northern Pacific has assumed a grave aspect. The committee of the Trainmen and Switchmen's union called out the trainmen and switchmen of the Helena, Butte and Wallace yards and on all work trains operating between Deer Lodge and operating between daalbetaoinshrdluscdr Thompson Falls. But four trains have moved out of the yards since Monday, those being made up by the yardmaster and his assistant and taken out by new men.

Rebels Defeated.

Hongkong, March 12.—Marshal Su, who recently arrived at the scene of the Kwang Si rebellion and took command of the imperial forces, has defeated the rebels at Lung Chow. Su expects to suppress the rising in a month.

It is shameful that such a bill as the Reichert act should receive a moment's consideration at the hands of the present Legislature. The bill in effect would license all sorts of gambling. It is an infamous measure, and should be promptly killed.

If Grant County is left in the Ninth district, the Democrats will be under many obligations to Representative Drewry of Louisville. He made strong and effective arguments in favor of the change when the matter was before the House Committee.

The action of the House in tabling the Capitol appropriation bill seems to destroy all hope of any appropriation at the present session of the Legislature for a new Capitol. Kentucky has been disgraced long enough by the present tumble-down buildings, and the Democrats may have cause for bitter regret for proving derelict to their plain duty in the matter.

DURBIN DEFYING THE CONSTITUTION.

Law Notes, a journal published at Northport, N. Y., holds that Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, is not doing his duty in the eyes of the law in not surrendering W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley to the authorities of Kentucky. The paper, in discussing the subject in a recent number, says:

"During the regime of slavery such refusals to surrender fugitives from justice were not rare; happily in later years the causes which produced this state of things have largely ceased to operate. It appears, however, that still occasions may arise when the passions of a Governor and his advisers are sufficiently aroused to result in recourse being had to the illegal and extra-legal method of refusing to honor a requisition. The words of the United States statute are: 'It shall be the duty of the executive authority to cause the fugitive to be arrested and secured, and delivered to the agent of the demanding State.' In Kentucky vs. Dennison, 24. How. (U. S.) 66, Chief Justice Taney declared that the duty of the Governor of a State upon whom a requisition is made to surrender a fugitive from justice is merely ministerial and leaves no room for exercise of discretion. In In re Voorhees, 32 N. J. L. 141, Chief Justice Beasley, commenting on the effect of the constitutional provision and the statute, said: 'The purpose, then, of this provision of the Constitution was, as I conceive, twofold: First, to impose an absolute obligation on each State to surrender criminals fleeing from the justice of another State; and, second, to define clearly the class of criminals so to be surrendered. The rule of international comity was defective in both particulars, and the design, consequently, was to create a substitute which should be without either defect. I think this end has been attained. For, in the first place, the language of the clause is so plainly imperative in its character as to leave no room for contention that the obligation now imposed on the respective States to surrender criminals is in the least degree a matter of discretion. In the place of spontaneous submission to the law of comity, there is now substituted that implicit obedience which is due to a rule of law. * * * The few exceptions [to the performance of this duty in good faith on the faith of the Executive] which are recollected have, in general, arisen from a mistaken sense as to the true nature of the duty itself; for an idea has undoubtedly prevailed, to a considerable extent, that such duty, in some respects, was one resting on discretion. But this is altogether an error. If the demand be made in due form, and the requisite documents exhibited, showing that the fugitive is charged with crime, the duty to surrender becomes merely a ministerial one. Under such circumstances, to refuse to authorize the extradition is a clear infraction of the rule prescribed in the Constitutional clause above quoted. I think it, therefore, indisputable that the Constitution has made the surrender of a fugitive from justice, which by the law of nations depended on the concessions of comity, a rule of law of perfect obligation and entirely imperative in its character."

Indorsed Gov. Beckham.
 CARLISLE, Ky., March 11.—A mass meeting at the court house indorsed the action of Gov. Beckham on the school book bill, and sent delegates to Frankfort to-day to urge its passage.

Sixty prominent Democrats of Lexington, including all the city and county officials of prominence, have decided to form an organization on the order of the Cook County Marching Club. One hundred and thirty names were signed to the roster of the club, and it is expected that the organization will reach a membership of 250, making it one of the strongest Democratic clubs in the South.

HON. WM. E. DODGE.

One of Many Eminent Men Who Place a High Value on the Work of the Y. M. C. A.—Local Notes.

No one will accuse Hon. William E. Dodge, of New York, of being narrow-minded or visionary. His name is a synonym for good, and his close connection with the institution of which he speaks warrants him in his statements or he would not have made them. His estimate of the economic value of the Young Men's Christian Association coincides and harmonizes with what has been said by such men as Moody, Wana-maker, Farwell, Ingalls, of Cincinnati, and our late lamented President McKinley. These words from Mr. Dodge were uttered at Boston recently.

"I am glad you are looking into association work from its economic side. This is a wise and practical thing to do. With the great pressure of demands upon Christian men, it is growing more and more necessary to decide when money given will do the most good and produce the best results. After careful study and an experience of thirty years I feel assured that what I have been able to give to association work has been, on the whole, the best investment I have ever made. I have followed the career of hosts of young men in all sections of the country, whose characters were formed, whose habits of unselfish and wise Christian usefulness were developed, and who have become citizens of high standing and influence through the educating and developing power of their connection with the Young Men's Christian Association. The difference in value to the State or to the city, between a young man who drifts into evil habits and uselessness, and who becomes a drag and a weight upon a community, and one who is held under kindly Christian and brotherly influence while his character and habits are formed, and who is trained to usefulness and responsibility, is almost beyond compute. "The best use we can put money to is to develop manhood and character. Next to home influences there is no better, surer or more economical way to do this than the work of the Young Men's Christian Association as now developed."

The Y. M. C. A. men's meeting will be held in the Limestone Fire Hall, Sixth ward, next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. General Secretary Pilkington will give a private talk to men. Boys under sixteen not admitted. The association orchestra will play at this meeting.

Dr. L. Brand will give a talk to the Juniors Saturday morning, March 22nd, at 9:45. Every Junior member should hear Dr. Brand.

Those who wish to enter the group for Bible study and general work are requested to meet at the association to-night at 7:30. This is free to all men whether members of the association or not.

The Junior mask social was a success in every way. Seventeen boys were masked.

Boys, why can't we organize a camera club in the association this spring? "The Camera" is on file in the reading room.

The gymnasium work for the year will be closed up with an athletic contest. Records will soon be opened for entries.

The Kansas City Journal of March 9th says: "Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Brent have announced the engagement of their youngest daughter, Mary Fleming, to Mr. George Gray Scott, of Milwaukee. The marriage will take place early in May, and at the same time, the marriage of Miss Martha Harding Brent and Mr. Ernest C. Moore, whose engagement was announced last fall, will be celebrated. To be a beauty and a belle is a Brent birthright, which the two sisters inherited in fullest measure. The double wedding will be the most interesting event of the spring season." The latter of the prospective brides has visited in Maysville on several occasions.

Rev. Shannon, son-in-law of Evangelist Culpepper, is in a meeting at Carlisle that has resulted in thirty-four additions to the Methodist Church, South.

Kentucky just now is attracting prospectors from all over the land. The wells already sunk prove it a very rich oil producer. MONEY INVESTED NOW MAY DOUBLE OR QUADRUPLE IN LESS THAN A MONTH.

Our holdings consist of about 5,000 acres in Wayne County, near the great Sunnybrook field, about 6,000 acres in Lincoln County, and 600 acres in Licking Valley in Bath County, close up to Ragland. Our first two wells near Ragland are producers. We have started to drill in all three counties, and expect to strike oil in every well. We are still acquiring valuable lands in addition to those already secured, and lying in close proximity to the greatest developments in the State.

A limited amount of the treasury stock will be sold, at $5 per share, par value of shares $10 each. This stock will, we confidently believe, be selling for par in thirty days.

THE BEE HIVE

A store is much like a human being. It has its birth, its period of preliminary schooling, it grows until it establishes its place in the affections of the people. And then keeps on growing—IF IT'S GOOD. No store ever jumped full grown into business. Some have tried, so have some men. But the store that WINS is the store that WORKS up by degrees from nothing, just as the most successful men have been they who started as boys with their POCKETS EMPTY, but their HEADS FULL. Those of our friends who knew the old place down on Sutton street, know how small the beginning was. That THIS STORE here is LARGER, is due simply to the fact that it has tried to serve the people as they liked to be served FAIRLY, COURTEOUSLY, COMFORTABLY.

A SCORCHING REBUKE.

Judge Cochran Sends Three Witnesses Home Without Per Diem or Mileage.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 11.—The sequel to the trial against Isom Wiley, of Lawrence County, charged with violation of the revenue law in the Federal Court to-day was an order from Judge Cochran dismissing the prosecution against Wiley. He also directed that three witnesses summoned for the prosecution be sent home without the allowance of witness fees or mileage.

Wiley, it developed, is a half idiot, and an investigation of the case convinced District Attorney Tinsley that the three prosecuting witnesses had confederated together and instigated a case against him in order to fleece the Government of per diem and mileage. When the case was called the District Attorney made a statement of the facts to the court and after a scathing arraignment of the parties to the attempted fraud moved a dismissal of the indictment.

"Let the indictment be dismissed," said Judge Cochran, "and let these witnesses pay their own way home. They are not entitled to either witness fees or mileage and the Marshal is directed to withhold the same."

River News.

Having succeeded in driving the independent boat lines out of the Cincinnati-Portsmouth trade, the White Collar Line has made an advance in freight rates, in some cases as high as 50 per cent. Because of this advance the big shippers of Portsmouth held a meeting this week. Simultaneous with the advance in White Collar Line rates comes notice of an advance in freight rates on all roads leading into Portsmouth. It is this advance the shippers are seeking to avert, having determined to meet the advance of the river rates by either inducing an independent line of steamers to enter the trade or giving everything to the railroads. As the roads have advanced rates, an independent packet is the shippers' only recourse.

A hearty appetite does not always indicate a healthy condition. It is not the quantity of food which is eaten but the quantity which is assimilated, which determines the actual value of the food consumed. If the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition cannot convert the food into nourishment, and into blood, then the food is an injury instead of a benefit. For all disorders of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition, there is a certain remedy in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It removes clogging obstructions, it strengthens the stomach, nourishes the nerves, enriches the blood and builds up the body. It is a flesh-forming, muscle making preparation, firm flesh instead of flabby fat. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or intoxicant of any kind, and is equally free from opium, cocaine and all narcotics.
